SUBJECT: Request for Speakers

TO: Director of Central Intelligence
2430 E Street, N. W.
Washington 25, D. C.
ATTN: Colonel Mathew Baird
Director of Training

1. The Strategic Intelligence School will begin its Thirty-first Class on 8 November 1954. I would like to continue the arrangement of having a portion of the instruction presented by members of the Central Intelligence Agency.

2. The instruction presented by members of your organization to previous classes is greatly appreciated. I feel that this series of lectures makes a valuable contribution to the course of instruction at the School.

3. In addition to lectures previously presented by CIA, you will note that three additional subjects, totaling four hours, have been added. These subjects are:

a. The Basis of Communist Thought. (2 hours)

A discussion of the philosophic concepts of Communism from Max and Engels to Lenin and Stalin; dialectics and their meaning; strengths and weaknesses.

b. Psychological Warfare. (1 hour)

Unconventional warfare; guerilla and partisan, sabotage, subversion, black, white and grey propaganda. U. S. plans and policy and defense measures. (A detailed letter on this subject has been sent [REDACTED])

25X1A

c. Foreign Intelligence Systems. (1 hour)

Foreign intelligence systems exclusive of USSR and satellites; field intelligence agencies of these systems with which U. S. attache personnel may have contact.
